

Blue Moon Vegan

: In Blue Moon Vegan, Paula Marie Coomer partners with baker Jan Calvert to raise the culinary bar with over one hundred original recipes, all of which are based on plant-derived ingredients and are also gluten-free. Ranging from luscious side dishes such as Butter-Dill Salad and staples like Paulas Lasagna al Forno to scrumptious breads, snacks, pastries, and innovative main courses such as Squash Blossoms in Cashew Cream, these easy-to-follow recipes will inspire both new and experienced vegans as well as omnivores looking to add a few meatless meals to the menu. The book also includes dozens of pages of nutrition and cooking information, based on Coomers background in nursing, Calverts experience running her own gluten-free bakery, and their mutual struggle with gluten intolerance.
