Naruto is a hit cartoon ninja from Japan. The name Naruto has two meanings, which are a whirlpool or kamaboko (a type of fish ball that's white and pink with a swirl pattern inside), which is popular to add to ramen and also is Naruto's favorite food. It came to be Naruto's name because Naruto's father read a story by Jiraiya. The main character of the story had bravery and endurance, and his name was Naruto. Therefore, Naruto's father named his own son after that character. In this book, we'll practice drawing Naruto together.
