

A Day with Picasso (Adventures in Art (Prestel))

An insight into one day in the life of Picasso, presented through his paintings and sculptures. The book describes his life and art, his wife Jacqueline, his children Claude, Françoise and Paloma, the dogs, cats, birds and the goat Esmeralda who lived with him. The day ends with a big costume party, where Picasso dresses up as a bull, one of his most famous motifs. The book is one of a series that aims to open up the world of art to children of all ages.
