

Fathers: A Collection of Poems

One hundred and eighteen of our finest American poets pay eloquent homage to their fathers and the broader concept of fatherhood in this loving anthology. In this splendid collection both daughters and sons introduce us and pay heartfelt tribute to their fathers. Whether writing of fathers who were heroes or anti-heroes, defenders or pacifists, those who went away suddenly or those who reappeared after a long period of time, the poets here cast the net wide to harvest the infinite variety of the father-and-child relationship. This moving anthology includes: Raymond Carver's The Trestle, Gwendolyn Brooks's In Honor of David Anderson Brooks, My Father, Rita Dove's Grape Sherbert, Robert Hayden's Those Winter Sundays, Donald Justice's Men at Forty, Hayden Carruth's Words for My Daughter from the Asylum, Maxine Kumin's My Fathers Neckties, Robert Bly's My Father at Eighty-Fiver
