

The Lone Star Ranger (Illustrated)

Buck Dwayne becomes a Texas Ranger and is sent to infiltrate the most notorious band of outlaws in Texas. The assigned goal is to identify the outlaws and their leaders, then alert the Rangers so they can swoop in and eliminate the bad guys. Buck is supposed to be under deep cover when he befriends the outlaws. However, shortly thereafter, in the process of apprehending one of the outlaws for a petty robbery, Dwayne inexplicably reveals himself to be a Texas Ranger. Predictably, he then falls in love with the daughter of the outlaw leader. Then, without first checking with his Ranger boss, Dwayne offers the outlaw leader freedom from arrest and prosecution, if he will only agree to move out of Texas. When the Texas Ranger leader finally arrives with his men, Buck Dwayne tells to boss of the deal he had made. The Ranger leader, whose last known goal was to kill all the outlaws, is perfectly fine with the deal not to arrest the outlaw leader.
